

GCWA
2004 ANTHOLOGY VOL. IV

Guidelines

1. Open to members of GCWA in good standing only.
2. Deadline for submissions: Sept.30, 2004.
3. Any genre—No op-ed pieces will be accepted.
4. GCWA has firsts right only. Copyright and all other rights remain author's property.
5. Maximum of 30 pages (or 7500 words) Double Spaced, Single Side.
6. If more submissions received than anthology can accommodate, first come, first served rule will apply.
7. Standard Manuscript Format. Do not staple submissions.
8. If possible, submit on floppy (IBM formatted), otherwise send hard copies (typed), no handwritten copies accepted. Anthology will use Times New Roman 12. Do NOT use smaller font.
9. Graphics, drawings, artwork, must be submitted on disc. These will be returned after anthology is published.
10. All work will be checked for spelling, grammar and punctuation. If more than 10 errors are found, MS will be returned to author for corrections.
11. As with prior anthologies, GCWA requests each author purchase one copy of published anthology.
12. No excessive violence or gratuitous sex.
13. Only original, unpublished (includes newsletters) submissions. (Author will attest to this in writing.)
14. The Anthology Committee reserves the right to reject any submission it deems contrary to its wishes.

Questions and additional information:
Or contact Ruben Colon