

Volunteers for the Southwest Florida Writers Conference

We will need volunteers for the positions below.

Volunteers are expected to check the badges of anyone attending a workshop, panel discussion, or one to one.

Seven - workshop monitors – volunteers will be able to attend the all the workshops in the room they are monitoring. You will be required to stay in one room.

One theater monitor – volunteer can listen to all the panel discussion.

Three - on to one monitors – volunteers will keep watch and move attendees along in a timely manner. Attendees are only allowed 20 minutes with an agent. Less with Deb Werksman and Dr. Mary Custureri.

Three - registration desk – 8 am – lunch break

Two - information desk – 8 am – lunch break

One – information desk - 1:20 pm - close

Two – Faculty book table – 8 am – lunch break

One – Faculty book table – 1:20 pm – close

Volunteers here may be asked to help out elsewhere as needed or during slow times.

We will also possibly need drivers to pick up the NY people from the FT. Myers airport. This is a great opportunity for you to have one on one face time. Let us know if want to be on the drivers list.

Volunteers not registered for the conference will be included in the breakfast, lunch and dinner as a thank you for volunteering.

You must be registered to attend a one to one with an agent or faculty member.
