

My Feathered Friend

Divine soul, beautiful mind...

a shining star in a darkening sky.

Velvet voice harmonizing delicate daylight tunes-

As blazing hot sun peaks overhead...

creeping along the horizon.

Feathered friend and I, forever friends are we-

Warm turkey breath lacing the sweet summer air...

breath once taken, now lost forever.

Agonized cries from excruciating pain- your pained cries-

Heart shattering, never recovering.

Time telling- happiness instantly departing,

Snatching you away like a secret spoken only once.

Our memories bursting into brutal yet brilliant flames.

Why are you leaving this way?

My feathered friend...

All I would give... for you to stay-

Even just for one more day.
