

2023 GUIDELINES FOR GCWA YOUTH WRITING CONTEST

- The Youth Writing Contest is open to any student 11-17 years of age. Entrants must be enrolled in a public or private school or home school program.
- All entries must be made online at www.gulfwriters.org/contest. Entries must be in Word (.doc) format – no exceptions.
- Your entry must be original, in English, unpublished, and unproduced, not accepted by any other publisher or producer before July 31, 2023.
- Word count:
 - Fiction / Nonfiction—750 words maximum (includes essay, memoir and creative nonfiction).
 - Poetry – 40 lines maximum
- Youth submissions will be judged separately from the adult writing contest (see both sets of guidelines at www.gulfwriters.org/contest)
- Entries must be received by 11:59 pm, May 31, 2023, and will not be accepted after that date.
- The decisions of the judges are final.
 - Judges will consider: creativity, structure, spelling, grammar, and punctuation. Visit our website <https://gulfwriters.org/contest/> for judging criteria forms.
 - Judges reserve the right to NOT select a winner if all entries fail to meet quality criteria.
- Winners will be notified by email on or before June 30, 2023.
- The top three winning Youth submissions will be published on GCWA’s Website (and possibly the Ft Myers Magazine) with author permission.
 - GCWA has only first rights. Copyright and all other rights remain property of author.
 - Winners will be announced at the GCWA meeting in June 2023 and posted on our website by July 31, 2023.
- You may submit up to three entries, but you will only be awarded one prize if chosen. Entries should not contain any graphic violence or other inappropriate material.
